New ASU Delegate

The ASU is pleased to advise that Steven Morrison has been appointed as your ASU Delegate.

Steven has been an employee at AaE for the last 9 years and has recently been appointed to a new role at Sharps Rd.

Steven was previously at the airport where he was also a Union Delegate and was involved in the last couple of EBA negotiations. Steven was also responsible for ensuring that all members were represented across both international and domestic.

We look forward to working with Steven and all of our ASU members to help maintain and improve your terms and conditions of employment as well as dealing with the everyday local and individual issues that arise along the way.

The best way that you can support Steven, your workmates and the ASU is to join the Union. It is only through people joining and working together that we can continue to improve your working conditions.

In addition, the EBA that you voted on that was recently negotiated by the Union and your Delegates was approved in Fair Work Australia at the end of last week which means that the pay increases and back pay will be getting paid over the next couple of pay periods. This includes a 4.5% pay increase backdated to 1 January 2010 and all the back pay that goes with that increase, a $500 payment in December this year, another 4.5% pay rise in January and then a third 4.5% pay increase in January 2013.

There are also many other improvements and protections that were negotiated in this agreement including, paid parental leave, increased allowances, the ability to review the classification structure.

All of these increases and improvements we're negotiated by your ASU Delegates, the Union and Union members, so if you are not yet a member it's time for you get on board and join. A membership for can be found on the rear of this bulletin or you can join online at www.asupsvic.org

A more detailed bulletin will follow detailing the timing of the increases and back payments as well as an overview of the other benefits that were negotiated in your Agreement. Please remember that the company does not just give you these increases out of the goodness of their heart, they are fought for by the Union.
